

Khadke elected chairman of local CCA

LOKMAT NEWS SERVICE

Aurangabad, Aug 14: S B Khadke was elected chairman of the Aurangabad Chapter of Cost Accountants at the general body meeting of the chapter held here recently. The local chapter is affiliated with Institute of Cost and Works Accountants India.

The vice-principal of the Sarswati Bhuvan College of Arts and Commerce, A K Thakare, was the chief guest. Thakare released the members' directory.

The outgoing chairman, Ramanand Modani, spoke about the activities of the last year. The chapter acquired own premises for its office. A computer laboratory was established and regional cost conference on indirect taxes was held in Aurangabad.

The newly-elected office-bearers of the Aurangabad Chapter of Cost Accountants.

The chairman, training and development committee, A R Joshi, spoke on various development programmes arranged for the students. The chapter organised coaching classes for ICWA foundation course at the SB College of Arts and Commerce. S R Pimple spoke about the progress achieved by the Professional Development Committee under the chairmanship of M R Pandit.

Rest of the office-bearers are as follows: Vice-chairman - N R Sharmal; secretary - R B Shukla; joint secretary - A C Patil and S M Rathi; Treasurer - G R Kulkarni; Training and development committee - A R Joshi; Professional Development Committee - M R Pandit; Executive Committee members - R G Modani, S R Pimple, R P Gore, R G Zanwar and P K Khemka.

Girish Kulkarni conducted the proceedings and Nitin Sharma proposed a vote of thanks.